

Youth Exploring Religion: This special interest group is open to Junior and Senior High School-aged persons who are interested in religion and want to explore and discuss religious beliefs, experience, and ethics as expressed from various religious points of view. A participant may or may not have a specific religious affiliation.

We'll explore and share our views on ethical and moral issues (during the meeting on February 16 we discussed the student slayings at N. Illinois State Univ. and the general issue of capital punishment) and we'll look at beliefs and experiences of people in various religions about the world. In fact, we'll discuss whatever comes up!

On March 1 a member of the group, a Muslim girl, answered questions about her religion and her religious life. The group meets every other Saturday from 2:00 PM to 3:30 PM at the home of Lenny Erickson, 424 Bernardo Avenue in Morro Bay.

Next Meeting is March 15.
